

FREE ESL CLASS at JACC

Days: Every Saturday (Feb. 4th thru May 27th)

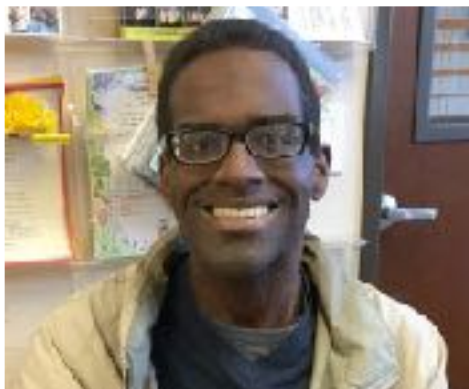

Hours: 4:30pm to 5:30pm

Fees: FREE

Textbook: Provided by the instructor

Instructor: Mr. Marvin McCrary-Cheung

No need for Sign-up, just come to the class!

Class Overview:

This ESL class will take a communicative approach to language teaching and learning, with emphasis on the acquisition and increase of English for practical and everyday usage. As the communicative approach is a method of language teaching that emphasizes interaction, we shall be engaging in activities that will have us interact and learn from each other. Class materials shall be provided by the instructor.

About:

Marvin McCrary-Cheung has been involved in the field of adult and higher education for more than 5 years. He has tutored students in high school and college, and he has previously taught English aboard. Marvin lived in Japan for 6 months, teaching English to adults in Tokyo. He currently works with the San Jose Public Library where he facilitates ESL conversational classes.

Marvin has his BA in History/Asian Studies from San Jose State University, and his CELTA(Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) from Teaching House in San Francisco. He is currently taking courses in Mandarin and Japanese at De Anza College.

Instructor:

Marvin McCrary-Cheung

Questions?

staff@jpnarts.org

Japanese Art and Cultural Center (JACC)

4334 Moorpark Ave,
San Jose, CA 95129